

Employment History

Assistant Director, Application Development

July 2016 - Present

The James Cancer Hospital and Comprehensive Cancer Center, The Ohio State University

- Lead teams of highly skilled software architects, developers, and support staff, including recruiting, training, and mentoring.
- Manage the portfolio of software applications and application development projects for the OSU James - CCC, assisting senior leadership in determining prioritization of projects given available resources.
- Lead software development and system architecture and integration projects utilizing DevOps tools, technologies, and Agile development methodologies.
- Participate in organization-wide information technology initiatives and strategic planning.

Project Manager/Senior Systems Developer

July 2000-July 2016

Office of the President & University Administration, The Ohio State University

- Analyzed business processes, developed technology-based solutions to improve those processes.
- Performed database, systems, and software analysis, design, development, and administration.
- Managed software development projects, primarily using .NET (C#) and MS SQL Server.
- Supported the senior leadership of The Ohio State University by providing comprehensive information technology management and support.
- Supervised IT support staff.

Information Systems Specialist

April 1999 – July 2000

Dept. of Environmental Health & Safety, The Ohio State University

- Webmaster for department's web site <https://ehs.osu.edu>.
- Designed and managed department's Windows client and server network.
- Designed databases and software for enrollment of training classes online, interactive online training material, service requests via the Internet, as well as several database inventory systems for radioactive material, hazardous chemicals, and biohazard material.

Skill Set

- IT Project Management
- IT Portfolio Management
- IT Operations Management
- Software Application Development (Full Stack)
- Data Systems Analysis, Design and Administration
- Team Leadership and Personnel Management

Education

Master of Engineering Management The Ohio State University, College of Engineering

B.A. Computer Information Systems The Ohio State University, College of Arts and Sciences

B.A. Economics The Ohio State University, College of Arts and Sciences

Professional Certifications

PMP – Project Management Professional ID #1418557, The Project Management Institute

ITILv3F – ITIL Information Technology Service Management Foundation Certification

CSM, CSD, CSPO – Certified ScrumMaster, Developer, and Product Owner from the Scrum Alliance

Volunteer Experience

Pelotonia Fundraiser and Volunteer (2017-Present)